

Monday	T	Objective- The student will learn what an effective answer to an OER resembles. The student will read and deconstruct an article to effectively answer the OER
		Activities P AP- Warm up- Main idea Monday Today: Review OER format and scoring Read and answer questions about Chavez and dependency on Venezuelan oil.
		Materials: pen, paper,
		Follow Up/HM P AP Correct Persuasive essay due Friday
Tuesday		Objective- to produce a coherent and cohesive essay
		Activities: P AP-Warm Up- Theme Tuesday Today: Timed writing Vocabulary in context
		Materials: pen paper and handouts
		Follow Up/HW: P AP – Correct Persuasive essay due Friday
Wednesday/Thursday		Objective- To practice short answer and OER's in preparation for the TAKS test To understand just and unjust laws and the use of logic in an Argument.
		Activities: P AP- Today Practice test for TAKS Letters from the Birmingham Jail (LTF)
		Materials: pen paper and handouts. Binder and dividers
		Follow Up/HW: P AP Correct Persuasive essay due Friday
Friday		Objective- the student will understand the requirements for successfully completing a TAKS style examination
		Activities: P AP and Prep: Review yesterdays TAKS test Vocabulary in Context P AP: Persuasive papers due
		Materials pen and review sheet
		Follow Up/HW: P AP

Week of:

Teacher: Hubright

Subject: English 1

Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday/Thur
Friday	